

In September of this year, Anchor was awarded Safecontractor status once again. Our Health & Safety is managed in-house by an experienced H&S Manager who ensures all our staff, engineers and subcontractors follow approved processes. The Safecontractor award, alongside our Constructionline accreditation provides important additional externally audited health & safety support and recognition. We encourage a positive culture of health and safety within the company ensuring compliance with legislation at all times.